is not in question just now; that was clearly derived from diverse sources to make the whole document fairly compendious.

The two groups of selected data which now follow are designed to illustrate what has been said about S and X. In the first group are listed specimen differences from A as disclosed in ‘R.M.1’, ‘Songs in Messiah’, ‘Lennard’ (excluding appendix) and ‘Sterndale Bennett’; these yield some of the hypothetical readings of the supposititious S:

No. 3, bar 24 (counting bars in Version B,) basso continuo, 1st note. B (should be sharp d).

No. 7, bar 4, vln 1, 4th beat, 1st quaver. g² (should be flat b²).

No. 9, bar 110, bass voice. ♩ ♩ ♩ ♩ ♩.t-i-dings to Je-
